

Abstract

This study aims to reveal the main character's efforts to survive in Rachael Lippincott's novel Five Feet Apart. This study adopts qualitative method to acquire and describe the data about the main character's efforts to survive. Theme of the novel is about teenager that fight serious illness in order to keep survive or alive. The discussion is divided into two topics concerned to the aspects of the analysis. The first is focused on efforts to survive of the main character's. Then, the second is about the impacts of efforts to survive of the main character's. In this stude, the writer hopes the result of comparison may give new insight of survivor characteristic.

Keywords : Effort, Survive, Impact, Character.