The cases of fraud that have occurred recently are getting more and more unsettling. One form of fraud is the criminal act of social gathering fraud. The formulation of the problem in this thesis is how to regulate legal protection for victims of online social gathering crimes, how is the criminal responsibility of perpetrators of online social gatherings, how is the analysis of the judge's legal considerations in decision Number 897/Pid.B/2020/PN Btm.

The research carried out is normative juridical law research with an empirical juridical approach using primary data and supported by secondary data in the form of primary legal materials, secondary legal materials and tertiary legal materials.

Based on the results of the study, it is understood that the regulation of legal protection for victims of online social gathering is Article 28 paragraph (1) Jo. Article 45A paragraph (1) of Law Number 19 of 2016 concerning Amendments to Law Number 11 of 2008 concerning Information and Electronic Transactions and Article 378 of the Criminal Code which regulates the crime of fraud. Specifically in the decision Number 897/Pid.B/2020/PN Btm, that the perpetrator is subject to criminal sanctions as stipulated in Article 378 of the Criminal Code. The criminal responsibility of the perpetrators of the online social gathering crime is that the defendant's actions have been in accordance with the primary indictment of the Public Prosecutor and have fulfilled the elements of Article 378 of the Criminal Code so that the defendant was sentenced to imprisonment for 3 (three) months and 15 (fifteen). The analysis of the judge's legal considerations in the decision Number 897/Pid.B/2020/PN Btm is that the defendant has no justification and excuse for the actions committed by the defendant, so the defendant must be held accountable for his actions in accordance with the decision handed down by the judge that the defendant is legally responsible for his actions. legally and convincingly guilty of committing a crime as stated in the alternative indictment of the First Public Prosecutor
